

On September 22nd and 23rd, Bob and Madison, DJ's at Raleigh's G105 station, encouraged their listeners to physically harm bicyclists, after taking calls from several listeners with stories of assaults on cyclists. I employ you to investigate this and take action against the radio station and its parent company, Clearchannel Communications.